Define cell (in biological term).
Based on your definition, describe what is essential to create artificial cells.

Is it necessary to collect and analyze whole genome information from individuals?